

Study Proposal and Data Sharing Process

If concerns raised, the application will go back to researcher for revision.

External study proposal or data request via email or web submission.

AMIkids application and confidentiality agreement completed by researcher and submitted to Data & Research Department.

Reviewed and approved by Data & Research.

Data & Research send notice of final approval to researcher/organization.

Final approval by CEO.

Reviewed and approved by applicable Excecutive Team Member.

Data & Research extract, de-identify, and send data securely. If no data sharing, proceed to next step.

Data & Research work with researcher to review any final products produced by data and/or assist in overseeing research study.

Risk Management or additional subject matter experts consulted, if necessary